Outline of Event

Open to amateur golfers only

You must pay an entry fee, this entitles to 10 drives in the qualifying round.

You can not purchase any more attempts. Balls will be provided for the event.

Once your entry form is received, you will be given a tee off allocation number.

The top 5 drives/players from each division in qualifying will go into the final play off where they will all play a further 5 drives, the player with the longest drive from this playoff will be determined the overall winner.

The 1st & 10 tees will be used for the qualifying events and the fairways will be clearly marked.

The final will be played on Hole No. 1 for all divisions

Lines will be clearly marked on fairways

Only drives that rest inside the line or with part of the ball touching the line will be ruled in play and eligible. The judges decision will be final and no correspondence will be entered into.

Any rule changes, further divisions or additional qualifying holes necessary, will be advised to the entrants on the day.
